WELCOME

to the 34th Annual Adams Avenue Street Fair, presented by the Adams Avenue Business Association. The Fair was first held in 1981 to celebrate the repainting and relighting of the historic Normal Heights neon sign, and continues to exist today as a celebration of community pride by the neighborhood residents, property owners and small business operators.

Adams Avenue runs through the craftsman communities of Normal Heights, Kensington, Antique Row, and University Heights. The canyon rimmed district is known for its vintage character and neighborhood celebrations. Scores of restaurants line the avenue offering culinary favorites from around the world. The area’s pubs and coffee houses provide for intimate settings and local character. Shop keepers focus on customer service and distinctive shopping alternatives. The Adams Avenue Street Fair and Adams Avenue Unplugged are San Diego’s largest free music festivals and occur every September and April. But the fun doesn’t stop there. Check out our website for all of the great events and businesses that make Adams Avenue BEYOND NORMAL. www.adamsavenuebusiness.com

The Rugburns

Sun. 27th, 5:45-7pm @ 33rd St. Casbah Rock Stage

The Rugburns group formed and began playing in the local San Diego area as a duo. In the beginning, Steve Poltz and Robert Driscoll were an acoustic duo playing in various coffeehouses and bars including the Blarney Stone Pub, Innerchange Coffee House, Megalopolis, and Java Joe's. The group released several self-produced cassette tapes in this band formation and were becoming a huge local draw and favorite in San Diego.

After the group signed a contract with Bizarre/Planet Records in 1993 (a label associated with Herb Cohen, who had earlier managed Linda Ronstadt, Tom Waits and Frank Zappa), the duo wanted to add a rhythm section for a full, "radio friendly" sound. It was then, the duo permanently changed to a foursome with bassist singer/songwriter Gregory Page and drummer "Stinky". The quartet released their debut album Morning Wood which was produced by Buddy Blue, in early 1994.

With funny, witty and sometimes bizarre lyrics, the band began to experience their first taste of national exposure; playing a sold out show at world famous Cleveland Agora Theater and Ballroom.

The songs "Hitchhiker Joe" and "Me and Eddie Vedder" would go on to be the most recognizable tracks on the album. The song "Hitchhiker Joe" (written by Steve Poltz and Steve Foth of the San Diego Band C.L.A.) received a large amount of national airplay and held the No. 1 slot on the nightly "Top 10" for several weeks on San Diego station 91X in early 1994.

staple, and repeatedly brought rockabilly music to the top of the charts.

“The Stray Cat” Lee Rocker

Sat. 26th, 4-5:15pm @ 34th St. Roots Rock Stage

Lee Rocker made his mark singing, playing, standing on, spinning and rocking his giant upright bass in the legendary music group The Stray Cats. Grammy-nominated, The Stray Cats have sold nearly 10 million albums and garnered an astounding 23 gold and platinum certified records worldwide. Founded by Rocker, Brian Setzer, and Slim Jim Phantom, The Stray Cats remain a radio

The Wailing Souls

Sat. 26th, 6:45-8:15pm @ Adams Park Groove Stage

Fusing the harmonies of Motown with the roots and dancehall sounds of reggae, The Wailing Souls have ridden the crest of Jamaica's music for more than four decades. Nominated for Grammy awards three times, the group scored hits with classic roots reggae tunes, Warand Bredda Gravlicious, Firehouse Rock, and 1992 album and title track, All Over The World.

Kid Ramos & The 44's

Sat. 26th, 8:45-10pm @ Hawley Blues Stage

The 44's are a Los Angeles-based band who play blues-roots-rock music. The 44's are one the brightest rising stars on the American blues roots scene. The raw rough and tough sounds generated by these four expert musicians during live performances and in the making of their Sophomore album Americana, demands to be heard by Blues music fans World Wide.

Stranger

Sun. 27th, 4-5:15pm @ Adams Park Groove Stage

Based out of the south bay of San Diego, neighboring the most frequently crossed border in the world, Stranger is turning heads through multicultural and musical diversity with a soulful blend of reggae roots, rock and jazz combined with conscious lyrics and unparalleled musicianship. The name says it all: Stranger does not fit into a mold.

HoneyHoney

Sun. 27th, 2:45-3:45pm @ 34th St. Roots Rock Stage

Honeyhoney is the jazzy, twangy, rollicking collaboration between vocalist Suzanne Santo and guitarist Ben Jaffe. Prior to joining the duo, Jaffe recorded music for TV and film; he then met Santo, an actress, through a mutual friend, who took Jaffe to see one of Santo's solo gigs. The two began holding informal songwriting sessions and soon discovered a musical partnership.

Steve Poltz

Sat. 26th, 2:45-3:35pm @ Dimilles Variety Stage

Steve Poltz is regarded as one of the most talented and prolific songwriters of our time. His songs have been among the longest running ever on the Billboard Top 100 and they regularly appear in movie soundtracks, television shows, and even the odd commercial. His rich and colorful legacy is the stuff of legend, but it is his distinctive style of songwriting that has caused the world to offer up its stages, clubs, and alleys. Poltz' sound is entirely unique- from his inhuman fingerstyle techniques to the inimitable melodies that roll from his guitar like cool waterfalls, you know a Poltz song as soon as you hear it.
